

Spring of Harmony IV

August 20-21, 27-28, 2011
All concerts start at 5 p.m.

Transforming Sound

Beloved classical masterpieces will be performed along with new works with rock influences, the rhythmic excitement of tango, a celebration of a truly “transforming” composer like Franz Liszt and his transcriptions, and, in our opening concert, the enjoyment of the most beloved excerpts from the American musical theatre tradition.

August 20 -- From East to West: An Exploration of the English Voice

John Campione, tenor & Jonathan Tsay, piano

August 21 -- Classical Folk Rock

Francesco Mastromatteo, cello & Cecelia Kao, piano

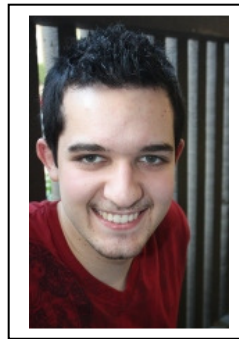

August 27 -- Liszt: the Transforming Artist

Liudmilla Georgievskaya, piano

August 28 -- Diverse Trios: Transformation of an Ensemble

*Sarunas Jankauskas: Clarinet, Rachell Wong: Violin, Francesco Mastromatteo: Cello
Johan Botes: Piano*

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, 3204 Skillman, Dallas 75206
(214) 821-9989 www.standrewsdallas.org

L-R: Liudmilla Georgievskaya, piano, Francesco Mastromatteo, cello, John Campione, tenor, Jonathan Tsay, piano, Rachell Wong, violin, Cecelia Kao, piano, Johan Botes, piano, Sarunas Jankauskas, clarinet

No admission for these concerts. A good will offering will be taken to support the Spring of Harmony expenses and St. Andrew's Giese Scholarship. Please join us for receptions following the first and final concerts.